

3.8: Adam and Eve _____ from God because they felt shame and knew of God's threat to bring physical death upon them if they ate the forbidden fruit.

If we "hide" by avoiding prayer or _____ so our guilt remains hidden, we leave ourselves more vulnerable to evil, unreconciled with God, depending on ourselves instead of God.

3.9: God's questions are _____. God already knows everything. He is giving Adam an opportunity to step out.

3.10: Fear of God should bring us to our _____ in humble prayer, not drive us away from our relationship with God.

3.11: God's question gives an opportunity to _____.

Biblical confession includes _____, which in turn includes the intention of walking with God in the future, rather than repeating the sin.

3.12: Adam blamed his _____, instead of taking responsibility for his failure to reflect God's character, represent God in the situation with the snake, rule over the snake in God's name, and protect his wife.

Making _____, rationalizing, shifting blame, citing circumstances will never justify our sin.

3.13: Eve blamed the _____ for her sin. Adam and Eve admitted their actions, but did not accept responsibility for those actions.

Leviticus 5.5 NIV: [God told Moses] “...when anyone becomes aware that they are guilty in any of these matters, they must confess in what way they have sinned.”

Numbers 5.6-7 NIV: [God spoke through Moses] “Any man or woman who wrongs another in any way and so is unfaithful to the LORD is guilty and must confess the sin they have committed.”

Leviticus 26.40-42 NIV: [God said if the nation of Israel got so bad that God exiled them, the first step toward restoration would be] “...if they will confess their sins and the sins of their ancestors—their unfaithfulness and their hostility toward [God]...”

Proverbs 28.13 NIV: Whoever conceals their sins does not prosper, but the one who confesses and renounces them finds mercy.

1 John 1.9 NIV: If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.

Psalms 32 NIV: Blessed is the one whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered. Blessed is the one whose sin the LORD does not count against them and in whose spirit is no deceit. When I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long. For day and night your hand was heavy on me; my strength was sapped as in the heat of summer. Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my iniquity. I said, “I will confess my transgressions to the LORD.” And you forgave the guilt of my sin.
