

4.1. “_____” in Hebrew sounds like what Eve said, “I have created” or “I have acquired” a man.

Luther’s view was that Eve thought Cain was the _____. English translations show Eve saying she created/acquired a man with the help of Yahweh.

4.2. Abel must have kept flocks for _____, clothing, or both, since people did not eat animals yet.

Cain was farming _____, which was a legitimate occupation in God’s view.

4.3-5. Why one sacrifice was _____ and the other was not is never explained in the Old Testament. One theory is that Abel brought the best of what he had, while Cain did not.

Hebrews 11.4 says that by _____, Abel brought a better offering than Cain. One theory is that Cain did not have true faith or worshipful faith, he just went through the motions.

God will point Cain to _____ what is right. Somehow Abel acted on his faith, while Cain did not.

1 John 3.12 says Cain’s actions were _____, even before he killed his brother. We only know of two actions: farming [ok] and offering this sacrifice [how was this evil?].

What makes the most sense is that God had _____ animal sacrifice to cover sin.

If that is true, then Cain did not act in faith on the _____ of temporary atonement through animal sacrifice as a fore-shadowing of the atonement of the promised savior.

4.1. “_____” in Hebrew sounds like what Eve said, “I have created” or “I have acquired” a man.

Luther’s view was that Eve thought Cain was the _____. English translations show Eve saying she created/acquired a man with the help of Yahweh.

4.2. Abel must have kept flocks for _____, clothing, or both, since people did not eat animals yet.

Cain was farming _____, which was a legitimate occupation in God’s view.

4.3-5. Why one sacrifice was _____ and the other was not is never explained in the Old Testament. One theory is that Abel brought the best of what he had, while Cain did not.

Hebrews 11.4 says that by _____, Abel brought a better offering than Cain. One theory is that Cain did not have true faith or worshipful faith, he just went through the motions.

God will point Cain to _____ what is right. Somehow Abel acted on his faith, while Cain did not.

1 John 3.12 says Cain’s actions were _____, even before he killed his brother. We only know of two actions: farming [ok] and offering this sacrifice [how was this evil?].

What makes the most sense is that God had _____ animal sacrifice to cover sin.

If that is true, then Cain did not act in faith on the _____ of temporary atonement through animal sacrifice as a fore-shadowing of the atonement of the promised savior.

4.6-7. God told Cain _____ would come to dominate him the more he did what was not right. So Cain must subdue the urge to sin.

4.8-9. Cain failed in his _____ because his theology was bad. He had a weak faith so he acted in the flesh.

1 John 3.11-12 says Cain _____ to Satan.

Cain walking apart from God's _____, killed his brother simply because Abel walked with God.

4.10-12. Cain still had to deal with _____, though he had eliminated his rival, so nothing was gained by this murder.

4.13-15. Cain responded with _____ - _____, rather than repentance.

Judgement and _____ are God's prerogatives, not ours, which was one reason God showed Mercy to Cain by protecting him.

Conclusion. God has always required _____ and obedience, but obedience has always proved impossible. That is why God offers grace through faith.

Without faith, people always _____ sin.
But when we have faith, we seek to obey best we can.

4.6-7. God told Cain _____ would come to dominate him the more he did what was not right. So Cain must subdue the urge to sin.

4.8-9. Cain failed in his _____ because his theology was bad. He had a weak faith so he acted in the flesh.

1 John 3.11-12 says Cain _____ to Satan.

Cain walking apart from God's _____, killed his brother simply because Abel walked with God.

4.10-12. Cain still had to deal with _____, though he had eliminated his rival, so nothing was gained by this murder.

4.13-15. Cain responded with _____ - _____, rather than repentance.

Judgement and _____ are God's prerogatives, not ours, which was one reason God showed Mercy to Cain by protecting him.

Conclusion. God has always required _____ and obedience, but obedience has always proved impossible. That is why God offers grace through faith.

Without faith, people always _____ sin.
But when we have faith, we seek to obey best we can.