

4.16-17: God's common _____ through nature allows even those who walk apart from God to eat and reproduce.

Building a _____ was defiance against God's decree that Cain be a wanderer.

4.18-19: Taking two _____ was inconsistent with God's revelation about marriage and family.

4.20-22: Cain's family developed _____ [arts and sciences] despite their depravity.

Keeping _____ probably indicates Cain's family was eating animals though God had not given that right yet, since the Hebrew word here is not the same as Abel's flocks.

4.23-24: Lamech boasted about _____ and revenge, making it clear that he was not walking with God. The information given about Cain's family, culminating with Lamech, shows the effect of depravity and fleshly thinking.

4.25-26: "Seth" comes from the idea that God _____ another seed [or child] for Adam and Eve.

One of Seth's descendants would be the _____.

Seth's family sought to _____ God and pray to God, in contrast to Cain's family.

5.1-2: God connects making people in his own _____ with the line of Seth as Adam's image.

4.16-17: God's common _____ through nature allows even those who walk apart from God to eat and reproduce.

Building a _____ was defiance against God's decree that Cain be a wanderer.

4.18-19: Taking two _____ was inconsistent with God's revelation about marriage and family.

4.20-22: Cain's family developed _____ [arts and sciences] despite their depravity.

Keeping _____ probably indicates Cain's family was eating animals though God had not given that right yet, since the Hebrew word here is not the same as Abel's flocks.

4.23-24: Lamech boasted about _____ and revenge, making it clear that he was not walking with God. The information given about Cain's family, culminating with Lamech, shows the effect of depravity and fleshly thinking.

4.25-26: "Seth" comes from the idea that God _____ another seed [or child] for Adam and Eve.

One of Seth's descendants would be the _____.

Seth's family sought to _____ God and pray to God, in contrast to Cain's family.

5.1-2: God connects making people in his own _____ with the line of Seth as Adam's image.

5.3-5: Adam and Eve passed both _____ of the human nature and the image of God to their children.

God carried out his threat of physical _____ on Adam, though not for 930 years.

5.6-24: Enoch walked faithfully with _____.

Enoch is offered as a contrast to _____ from Cain's family, both representing the seventh generation of their families. Enoch would have had a personal and worshipful relationship with God, and would have practiced repentant confession and animal sacrifice, acting in faith in God's savior promise.

Enoch is one of two people known to be _____; Elijah is the other [2 Kings 2.11].

5.25-32: "Noah" means " _____ " or "resting place."

Lamech thought Noah would _____ people from the effects of God's curse in judgment of sin. This indicates his faith in God's promise of the Savior seed and hope that his son would be that seed.

Conclusion: In the flood, God would kill _____ person in Cain's family. They accomplished a lot in worldly terms, but they did not glorify God, mutated the concept of marriage, and glorified violence.

In the flood, God would kill _____ every person in Seth's family. Corrupted human nature ["inherited sin"] infected Seth's line, though they had some especially righteous people, such as Enoch, Lamech, and Noah.

5.3-5: Adam and Eve passed both _____ of the human nature and the image of God to their children.

God carried out his threat of physical _____ on Adam, though not for 930 years.

5.6-24: Enoch walked faithfully with _____.

Enoch is offered as a contrast to _____ from Cain's family, both representing the seventh generation of their families. Enoch would have had a personal and worshipful relationship with God, and would have practiced repentant confession and animal sacrifice, acting in faith in God's savior promise.

Enoch is one of two people known to be _____; Elijah is the other [2 Kings 2.11].

5.25-32: "Noah" means " _____ " or "resting place."

Lamech thought Noah would _____ people from the effects of God's curse in judgment of sin. This indicates his faith in God's promise of the Savior seed and hope that his son would be that seed.

Conclusion: In the flood, God would kill _____ person in Cain's family. They accomplished a lot in worldly terms, but they did not glorify God, mutated the concept of marriage, and glorified violence.

In the flood, God would kill _____ every person in Seth's family. Corrupted human nature ["inherited sin"] infected Seth's line, though they had some especially righteous people, such as Enoch, Lamech, and Noah.