

Genesis 8.1-9.17 / Faith Bible Church / 10.04.20 / groben.com

8.1-5: God “remembering” someone in the Bible indicates God will _____ that person, usually by showing mercy and offering deliverance from a judgment, so that God can fulfill his covenant promises.

8.6-14: Despite his own personal hardships, Noah acted as God’s _____ on the Ark, taking tender care of the animals, as evidenced by his care for the dove.

Noah showed incredible _____ and faith, in that after a year in the ark, possibly without hearing from God during that time, he waited for God’s instruction to leave the ark, even after he could see dry land all around him. [Reflect this week on how you can be more like Noah in this.]

8.15-18: When God speaks, Noah _____ what God says. It was that simple. It should be for us too! [Reflect this week on how you can be more like Noah in this.]

With Noah and his family, God restarted his plan to populate the earth with _____ – bearers, who would reflect God’s character, represent God, rule as God’s stewards over nature, and reproduce the image of God throughout the earth. [Reflect this week on how you can be better as God’s image bearer.]

8.19-20: Noah’s first act after getting off the boat was to _____ through sacrifice. He wanted to express his submission to God, dependence on God, and devotion to God. [Reflect this week on how you can be more worshipful in attitude and action day to day.]

Genesis 8.1-9.17 / Faith Bible Church / 10.04.20 / groben.com

8.1-5: God “remembering” someone in the Bible indicates God will _____ that person, usually by showing mercy and offering deliverance from a judgment, so that God can fulfill his covenant promises.

8.6-14: Despite his own personal hardships, Noah acted as God’s _____ on the Ark, taking tender care of the animals, as evidenced by his care for the dove.

Noah showed incredible _____ and faith, in that after a year in the ark, possibly without hearing from God during that time, he waited for God’s instruction to leave the ark, even after he could see dry land all around him. [Reflect this week on how you can be more like Noah in this.]

8.15-18: When God speaks, Noah _____ what God says. It was that simple. It should be for us too! [Reflect this week on how you can be more like Noah in this.]

With Noah and his family, God restarted his plan to populate the earth with _____ – bearers, who would reflect God’s character, represent God, rule as God’s stewards over nature, and reproduce the image of God throughout the earth. [Reflect this week on how you can be better as God’s image bearer.]

8.19-20: Noah’s first act after getting off the boat was to _____ through sacrifice. He wanted to express his submission to God, dependence on God, and devotion to God. [Reflect this week on how you can be more worshipful in attitude and action day to day.]

8.21-22: God promised to never again _____ everything, though people continue to sin. The Great Tribulation will be awful, but it will not be as universally deadly and destructive as this flood.

9.1-7: God reiterated his plan for _____ authority and his blessing of fertility. As people reflect God's character and represent God, they will have God's blessing to rule as God's stewards over the rest of creation and to reproduce God's image by raising children to know and walk with God.

Blood symbolizes God's gift of _____; and the shed blood of a sacrificial animal was what appeased God's wrath over sin until Jesus came to be the permanent sacrifice by shedding his blood. Thus people are not supposed to consume blood or meat with blood still in it.

Because all people are made in God's image, all human life is _____. [Reflect this week on how this truth should affect your thinking about the handicapped, elderly, unborn, and fallen.]

9.8-17: The _____ is a sign of God's new promise not to destroy the Earth again. [Reflect this week on how this can reassure us in our day to day thoughts about God and life.]

This can remind us that God always keeps his _____ and his covenants. It also can remind us of God's mercy and grace which we get through Christ, that instead of being destroyed as enemies of God, we are adopted into his family!

8.21-22: God promised to never again _____ everything, though people continue to sin. The Great Tribulation will be awful, but it will not be as universally deadly and destructive as this flood.

9.1-7: God reiterated his plan for _____ authority and his blessing of fertility. As people reflect God's character and represent God, they will have God's blessing to rule as God's stewards over the rest of creation and to reproduce God's image by raising children to know and walk with God.

Blood symbolizes God's gift of _____; and the shed blood of a sacrificial animal was what appeased God's wrath over sin until Jesus came to be the permanent sacrifice by shedding his blood. Thus people are not supposed to consume blood or meat with blood still in it.

Because all people are made in God's image, all human life is _____. [Reflect this week on how this truth should affect your thinking about the handicapped, elderly, unborn, and fallen.]

9.8-17: The _____ is a sign of God's new promise not to destroy the Earth again. [Reflect this week on how this can reassure us in our day to day thoughts about God and life.]

This can remind us that God always keeps his _____ and his covenants. It also can remind us of God's mercy and grace which we get through Christ, that instead of being destroyed as enemies of God, we are adopted into his family!