

Psalms 119.105 / Church of the Open Bible / 04.24.16

The psalmist refers to _____ as God's "word." That means it is God's revelation, what God wants to reveal to us. Do you agree with the psalmist, do you believe this?

Scripture can have no real authority in our lives or be _____ to meet our needs, if it is not inspired, inerrant, revelation from God. What does 2 Timothy 3.16 say?

The poet says God's word is a lamp, meaning it illuminates God's _____ and will for us. It shows us who God is, how we can relate to him, how we can please him, and how he designed us to live. It shows us the traps of spiritual darkness and illuminates the promises and guidance of God.

This verse says God's word provides _____ guidance, which is emphasized in the parallel verse, 106.

The psalmist cherished God's rules and _____, because they would provide him with guidance for life, guidance from God who is both loving and wise.

Without scripture, how does a young person [or an old person] know what is morally right or wrong, what is spiritually safe or dangerous, what is pleasing or displeasing to God?

Psalms 119.105 / Church of the Open Bible / 04.24.16

The psalmist refers to _____ as God's "word." That means it is God's revelation, what God wants to reveal to us. Do you agree with the psalmist, do you believe this?

Scripture can have no real authority in our lives or be _____ to meet our needs, if it is not inspired, inerrant, revelation from God. What does 2 Timothy 3.16 say?

The poet says God's word is a lamp, meaning it illuminates God's _____ and will for us. It shows us who God is, how we can relate to him, how we can please him, and how he designed us to live. It shows us the traps of spiritual darkness and illuminates the promises and guidance of God.

This verse says God's word provides _____ guidance, which is emphasized in the parallel verse, 106.

The psalmist cherished God's rules and _____, because they would provide him with guidance for life, guidance from God who is both loving and wise.

Without scripture, how does a young person [or an old person] know what is morally right or wrong, what is spiritually safe or dangerous, what is pleasing or displeasing to God?

Biblical moral commands [like Colossians 3.9] are based on biblical _____, teachings such as what God's character is like, why God created us, and who we were created to be.

God is never going to ask us to do something the Bible identifies as _____ in order to accomplish his work. Since biblical morals are based on God's character, they always apply.

We need to find our sense of value, identity, and _____ in Christ, based on scripture.

At the bottom of this webpage - groben.com/transformation.php - there is a four page handout which lists several resources to make Bible study more fun.

GEMS emphasizes the theme "Choose _____," encouraging girls to get into God's word and apply it to life.

At Church of the Open Bible, we emphasize _____ the Bible accurately to all age groups, because God uses his word to renew our minds and bring healing and growth.

At Church of the Open Bible, we love _____ and teenagers, so we invest a lot in providing them with accurate Bible teaching; authentic, multi-generational, multi-ethnic community; and spiritual mentoring [like our GEMS ministry leaders].

Biblical moral commands [like Colossians 3.9] are based on biblical _____, teachings such as what God's character is like, why God created us, and who we were created to be.

God is never going to ask us to do something the Bible identifies as _____ in order to accomplish his work. Since biblical morals are based on God's character, they always apply.

We need to find our sense of value, identity, and _____ in Christ, based on scripture.

At the bottom of this webpage - groben.com/transformation.php - there is a four page handout which lists several resources to make Bible study more fun.

GEMS emphasizes the theme "Choose _____," encouraging girls to get into God's word and apply it to life.

At Church of the Open Bible, we emphasize _____ the Bible accurately to all age groups, because God uses his word to renew our minds and bring healing and growth.

At Church of the Open Bible, we love _____ and teenagers, so we invest a lot in providing them with accurate Bible teaching; authentic, multi-generational, multi-ethnic community; and spiritual mentoring [like our GEMS ministry leaders].