

When we say "I Worship"

we think

Praise the Lord

But προσκυνέω

includes

When we say "I Worship"

we think

Praise the Lord

But προσκυνέω

includes

1. How can I be more devoted to God?

- † Should I commit to be more consistent about coming to church every week, on time, ready to praise?
- † Should I be praying more each day?
- † Should I sacrifice entertainment one day each week to spend an evening in Bible study or extended prayer?
- † Should I sing worship songs each morning before work?
- † Should I be more obviously a Christian in my daily interactions with others?

2. How can I be more dependent on God day to day?

- † Should I be praying every morning for God's guidance, to be led by the Holy Spirit each moment?
- † Should I be seeking God's deliverance through life's challenges, instead of accomplishing things on my own?
- † Should I be stepping out of my comfort zone to minister to others, trusting God to take care of me as I do?
- † Should I reflect more often on what Christ has done for me on the cross and on what the Holy Spirit is doing to make me more like Christ?

3. In what ways do I need to become more obedient and submissive to God?

- † Should I overcome a bad habit?
- † Should I forgive someone?
- † Should I change an aspect of my life that does not conform to Scripture?
- † Should my behavior better reflect the character of God?
- † Should I be more obedient to the commands of sharing the gospel, teaching others, and participating in the church community?

4. As you search your hearts, don't let this list of questions limit you. God might want to provoke a conviction for change in you that is different from the few things we listed. Confess your shortcomings to God, rejoice in his forgiveness, and commit to showing him better devotion, dependence, and submission going forward.

1. How can I be more devoted to God?

- † Should I commit to be more consistent about coming to church every week, on time, ready to praise?
- † Should I be praying more each day?
- † Should I sacrifice entertainment one day each week to spend an evening in Bible study or extended prayer?
- † Should I sing worship songs each morning before work?
- † Should I be more obviously a Christian in my daily interactions with others?

2. How can I be more dependent on God day to day?

- † Should I be praying every morning for God's guidance, to be led by the Holy Spirit each moment?
- † Should I be seeking God's deliverance through life's challenges, instead of accomplishing things on my own?
- † Should I be stepping out of my comfort zone to minister to others, trusting God to take care of me as I do?
- † Should I reflect more often on what Christ has done for me on the cross and on what the Holy Spirit is doing to make me more like Christ?

3. In what ways do I need to become more obedient and submissive to God?

- † Should I overcome a bad habit?
- † Should I forgive someone?
- † Should I change an aspect of my life that does not conform to Scripture?
- † Should my behavior better reflect the character of God?
- † Should I be more obedient to the commands of sharing the gospel, teaching others, and participating in the church community?

4. As you search your hearts, don't let this list of questions limit you. God might want to provoke a conviction for change in you that is different from the few things we listed. Confess your shortcomings to God, rejoice in his forgiveness, and commit to showing him better devotion, dependence, and submission going forward.